DETAIL ACTION

Notice to Applicant(s)

1. This application has been examined. Claims 1-5 are pending.
2. The prior art submitted on March 13, 2007 has been considered.
3. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. § 119, which have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Alberth, Jr. et al. (6,438,381).
6. With respect to claim 1, Alberth, Jr. et al. disclose a method and apparatus for location determination of a cellular telephone which includes at least the steps of requesting position information to a base station when the GPS receiver is in a normal state, setting an operating position according to the positional information when the information is received within a set time after requesting the positional information and entering a normal operating state when at least one satellite signal is received (see at least column 4, line 50 to column 5, line 62).

7. Alberth Jr. et al. do not disclose the self checking an internal operation when power is initially applied. However, such feature is old and well known in the art at the time the invention was made to realize that such feature should be existed in the electronic device every time it is power up in order to check the working condition of its device.
8. With respect to claim 2, Alberth Jr. et al. do suggest that the time periods are chosen depends on the ordinary skill in the art (see at least column 5, lines 28-32).
9. With respect to claims and 3 and 4, Alberth Jr. et al. suggest those features in at least column 5, lines 34-64.
10. With respect to claim 5, the limitations of this claim are disclosed in at least figure 2 and the related text.

Conclusion

11. All claims are rejected.
12. The following references are cited as being of general interest: Goldberg et al. (5,742,509), Shamoto et al. (6,690,322) and Imakado et al. (2003/0083816).
